THE DEBATE CLUB

The Debate Club was organized in 1947. Marie Ashburn, B. B. Stonnell, Frank Baber, Jeanette Furr, Herbert Goodman, Audrey Sanderson, Ann Smith and Jack Boggs were the members for that year. The teams were declared winners by default in Richmond at the spring district meet in March, and both the affirmative and negative teams won out at Federicksburg in April in the regional meeting. This victory resulted in their going to The University of Virginia to compete in the state meet. The affirmative team won throughout the first quarter of the contest and went into the semi-final quarter. Here they lost.

In 1948 Herbert Goodman, Eric Robinson, Audrey Sanderson, Jeanette Furr, Shirley Baldwin, Ann Smith, and Lois Ehrhart made the Club. Both teams came through victoriously to the semi-finals at The University of Virginia and the affirmative team lacked one vote of making state championship.

In 1949 Bobby Sanderson, Betty Frazier, Rozine Stout, and Anne Foster were added as new members, while Lois Ehrhart dropped out. Both teams lost out at the regional meet at Federicksburg. This defeat was a great disappointment, but it was agreed by all members that a great deal of inner satisfaction had been gained through the informal type of debating that had been used.

In 1950 the Club has only 4 members: Bobby Sanderson and James Parker, are representing the affirmative side of the State Question, "Resolved, That the people of the United States should reject the Welfare State." S. C. Glass and Lennie Gamage are upholding the negative side of the question. The Club is hopeful at the moment that 1950 will bring fulfillment of it's ambition------State Champions.

SAFETY PATROL

A Safety Patrol was organized at Cumberland in the early part of '51.

In his talk to the students, David Barker, captain, said, "First of all, the Safety Patrol is not a police force, and it isn't intended to become one. The Safety Patrol is an organized group of boys for promoting safety for our school boys and girls who ride on the buses.

"To function with best results, the patrolmen will need the co-operation of all the students. It is known to all of us that leaders in any organization need the co-operation of their followers to operate successfully. The Patrol is asking for the students' help.

"When school lets out in the afternoon, patrolmen will be stationed along the walk and one at each end of the drive to stop all traffic until the buses have departed. One of the patrolmen will get inside each bus first and go to the back; another will stand at the door and then sit in front when the bus is loaded. The buses will be loaded from the rear; that is, the first ones on the bus get the back seats. If anyone desires to occupy an empty seat towards the front, he may move up, but not while the bus is in motion. When someone has to cross the road, the patrolman in front will get out and stand in front of the bus. You will stay on your side of the road until he sees if the way is clear. In the morning the buses will also be loaded from the rear.

"The patrolmen may alternate their positions each week or whenever they desire.

"They can be identified by their badges and white belts.

"With the students' co-operation, the Safety Patrol will be a success."
